To Whom It May Concern:

Over the past year, Rick Goris, of AGGroup, has undertaken a number of minor and major home improvements for us at both our home in Toronto and our summer property in the Kawarthas, and has performed every assignment with a high degree of professionalism, paying exceptional attention to detail. These have ranged from a major refurbishment of our kitchen, including re-building of cabinets and installation of all new appliances, through to miscellaneous painting and decorating chores. He has been very reliable, meeting timetables established at the outset of all assignments, and has left the work environment very clean and orderly, not just at the end of the project, but even during the construction phase.

His work in designing and constructing a cedar deck for our Toronto property was so impressive that my two immediate neighbours hired Rick to construct similar decks for them. I know that they too were so satisfied with his work that they have retained him for other projects.

As already noted, Rick pays close attention to detail, and as a consequence, his workmanship is of a high quality, notwithstanding his reasonable charges. He also has provided us with innovative suggestions that have improved on our initial renovation ideas, and have saved on costs as well.

I would not hesitate to recommend Rick Goris for any building or renovation assignment.

Sincerely,
